2023 VOCAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

Thursday, March 9, 2023

Dear Choral Directors and Singers:

We invite you to participate in the 2023 Lenoir-Rhyne University Vocal Music Festival to be held on Tuesday, April 4, from 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Participants will sing alongside members of the LR A Cappella Choir throughout the day, culminating in an evening performance that will feature high school soloists and the mass festival choir. Ryan Luhrs and other members of the LR vocal music faculty will direct the mass choir. This year's final concert will be in LR's beautiful Grace Chapel. LR A Cappella Choir and College Singers will offer a mini concert after lunch.

We view this event as an opportunity to celebrate singing through a unique choral experience that also strengthens relationships between LR and regional high schools. All high school students are invited to participate regardless of ability and experience. To that end, we want to remove as many barriers as possible to encourage participation:

1. There is no registration fee.
2. Only one selection will need to be purchased and rehearsed in advance of the festival and it is available as a digital download. Practice tracks for are freely available on YouTube.

Students are invited to eat lunch in the LR dining hall ($8/person). Please collect money in advance and write a single check to "Aramark Food Services" Students can also bring their own food. The festival will culminate with a concert in Grace Chapel.

Interested high school soloists are invited to have a 15 minute lesson/clinic with a member of the LR voice faculty. Selected soloists will also perform in the final concert. Students are encouraged to memorize their solo. You can nominate up to three students to participate in this opportunity. If possible, prioritize your students who have been working on solo repertoire. However, all students are welcome to participate.
